

About the Institute

Aryakul College of Pharmacy and Research, Lucknow was established under the aegis of Manav Vikas Evam Sewa Sansthan (MVESS), an NGO promoting the cause of empowering society through quality education and economic sustainability. In an effort to realize the goal of grooming the educational and technical competence of its younger generations to prepare them to take the challenges of adulthood with gainful employment and at the same time contributing in nation building, ACPR started their first batch in the year 2007. The beginning made in the year 2006-2007 resulted in shaping up of 10 acre campus of ACPR with state of the art facilities and building, surrounded with greenery. With the approval of AICTE and affiliation to AKTU, ACPR is running Bachelor of Pharmacy course since 2007 and started M.Pharm. in Pharmacology under Prof P.N.Singh (Dean, ACPR and Ex HOD, Dept of Pharmacology, BHU), Pharmaceutics under Prof. Durgesh Mani Tripathi (Principal ACPR) and Pharmaceutical Chemistry under Prof V. D Tripathi (Prof. ACPR) with the intake of 18 seats in each branch from the session 2013-14 with the well equipped laboratories which includes UV-Spectrophotometer, HPLC, Flame Photometer, Fluoremeter etc.
